hemma

hemma - (hem-mah) pronunciation

hemma means "home" in Swedish.

Home is where we feel safe, supported, encouraged, and loved for being us.

All over the world people yearn for home, both in the spiritual and material sense.

Home is the place we go to feel like we belong.

hemma is an owner-operated business that is a community-based acupuncture clinic and yoga studio.

We welcome people of all ages interested in movement, inquiry, healing and connection.

The sliding scale fee structure is our way of contributing sustainable and accessible high quality acupuncture and yoga services to all members of the community every day.

Thank you for your ongoing support!
